BIOGRAPHY

Teacher Cassandra Mitchell is a loving, humble, and devoted servant of God whose life reflects a heart for ministry, family, and people. For 29 and a half years, she has faithfully served in ministry, demonstrating that true leadership begins with a willingness to serve. She preached her initial sermon on January 1, 2005, marking a significant milestone in her journey of proclaiming God's Word.

Throughout her years of service, Teacher Cassandra has had the privilege of serving under both Bishop and Apostle McKenzie. Today, she continues that legacy of faithful service alongside her husband and pastor, Bishop G. Marc Mitchell, at Faith Assembly Christian Center.

Teacher Cassandra has been married to Bishop G. Marc Mitchell for 35 years. Together, they are the proud parents of two adult children, Cameron Mitchell and Aaliyah Mitchell.

She earned her Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education from the University of Mount Olive and pursued ministerial studies at The Potter's House School of Ministry (PHSOM). She is a published author, having written The Servant and two cookbooks. Through her writing, she shares her passion for serving others and nurturing those around her.

At the center of Teacher Cassandra's ministry is a genuine love for people, especially women. She is passionate about encouraging women to build each other up, support one another, and walk together in purpose. Her personal motto, "We complete and not compete," reflects her belief that women are stronger when they recognize the value and purpose God has placed in each of them.

Known for her loving spirit, generosity, humility, nurturing heart, and wonderful sense of humor, Teacher Cassandra has a way of making others feel valued, encouraged, and loved.

Her favorite scripture, Psalm 51:10, captures the heart behind her service:

"Create in me a clean heart, O God and renew a right spirit within me."

— PSALM 51:10

"We complete and not compete."
